ACADEMIC POSTS
DCU INSTITUTE OF EDUCATION

Dublin City University (www.dcu.ie) is a research-intensive, globally-engaged, dynamic institution that is distinguished by both the quality and impact of its graduates and its focus on the translation of knowledge into societal and economic benefit. Excellence in its education and research activities has led to its consistent ranking in the top 50 of the world’s young universities (QS Top 50 under 50).

The DCU Institute of Education (http://www.dcu.ie/institute_of_education/index.shtml) is the newest faculty of Dublin City University. It is based in a state-of-the-art, purpose-built facility on the DCU St Patrick’s Campus in Drumcondra in Dublin. Established in 2016 as Ireland’s first university Faculty of education, it has a staff of more than 130 full-time academics and a student body in excess of 4,000. As one of the world’s leading young Universities, DCU has established its fifth and newest faculty out of a conviction that studies and research in education and the preparation and support of teachers and educators are central to the transformation of lives and communities.

To support the further development of the Institute’s suite of undergraduate and postgraduate programmes, as well its work in research and innovation, we are recruiting for full-time lecturers in the following areas:

- Early Childhood Education
- History Education
- Music Education
- Religious Education
- Literacy Education

We are interested in hearing from those who already hold doctoral qualifications, or are on a doctoral track, or who have extensive experience of teaching, innovation and research in their chosen fields. For more information, including the application procedure, please visit http://www.dcu.ie/hr/vacancies/current.shtml

The Closing date for applications is 19th July 2017

Dublin City University is an equal opportunities employer