Special arrangements will be made for extenuating circumstances. In the absence of documentation to support extenuating circumstances, the student will be required to present for a meeting with the Programme Chair or co-ordinator in advance of submitting coursework.

2. Derogations from Marks and Standards

Marks and Standards apply.

3. Progression

3.1 Credits for Progression

Students must have successfully completed a minimum of 40 credits in a study period in order to progress to the next study period.

3.2 Carrying modules into the next academic session

Under exceptional circumstances¹, and subject to the approval of the Progression and Award Board, students may be permitted to carry a maximum of 10 credits into Year 2

3.3 Exit Awards

Upon completion of 60 credits (excluding SG500 Action Research and SG501 Dissertation) students are permitted to exit with a Graduate Diploma in Education and Training Management (eLearning).

Where a student requests to exit a programme with a lesser award the following precision rules apply. Core modules, must be included in the calculation of the precision mark. When a student has completed more ECTS credits than needed for the award, any remaining credits required for the calculation of the precision mark will be selected for the remaining modules taken, when using the best marks obtained. All marks used in the calculation of the precision mark will be the marks obtained at first attempt.

4. Compensation

Marks and Standards apply.

5. Resit Categories

The resits offered for the August examinations diet vary depending on the module to be re-taken. The following is an explanation of the resit categories.

Resit category 1: A resit is available for all components of the module.

Resit category 2: No resit is available where the module is 100% assessed by Continuous Assessment.

Module Code	Module Title
SG501	Dissertation

Resit category 3: No resit is available for the continuous assessment component and the examination must be re-taken.

¹ Where extenuating circumstances are to be taken into account, these must have been submitted by the student in line with normal procedure.
