

PE PAYS Research Forum 2013

Where: Dublin City University
When: June 13th & 14th, 2013.
Theme: Youth Sport

Keynote: Professor Joan Duda, University of Birmingham.

Joan is the co-ordinator of the PAPA project (Promoting Adolescent Physical Activity). This is a European-based project committed to enhancing young peoples' health and well-being, via positive experiences in youth sport. Our goal is to develop, deliver and evaluate a theoretically-grounded and evidence-based coach education programme that can help coaches foster quality motivation and make youth sport engaging, empowering, and enjoyable. The PAPA Project is funded by the EC under the Framework 7 programme. PAPA involves a collaboration between leading researchers and sporting leaders in the UK, Norway Spain, France and Greece. See: <http://www.projectpapa.org/>
