What is KICC 2018?

The KPMG International Case Competition (KICC) gives you the chance to analyse, develop, and present a Consulting Case study to KPMG judges. And ultimately win an all-expenses paid trip to the KICC International Finals in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia where your team will compete for the title of KICC Global Champion on 09-12 April 2018.

The theme for KICC 2018 is: Innovate. Disrupt. Transform. This competition will give you the opportunity to put your consulting skills to the test, explore business cases, meet new peers, and take the first step towards an extraordinary career.

KICC is one of the largest and most recognized case competitions in Ireland. In 2017, 19,000 students across 23 countries came together to participate in KICC Globally.

What opportunities will KICC 2018 give students?

Participating in the KPMG International Case Competition (KICC) can give you a head start in your career. You can expect to gain valuable real-world experience, learn new skills and have an epic adventure. Experience the fast-paced world of casework and collaborate to conquer complexity.

How do teams apply?

To apply to take part, please see below:

- Arrange a team consisting of you and three other students to compete in KPMG national heats. Each team must have gender diversity and cannot be made up of all males or females.
- Students from any year of study and discipline can apply.
- Forward your team name, and each team members’ CV to gradrecruitment@kpmg.ie

We will be holding national heats in February 2018, to decide on the winning team who will represent KPMG Ireland in the KPMG International Case Competition (KICC) in Malaysia. Please note; your team must be available on 01, 02, 19 and 20 February 2018 to compete.

Closing Date

Closing date for applications will be midnight 21 January 2018. If you have any questions, please contact Suzanne Murphy on suzanne.m.murphy@kpmg.ie
