Advance HE Fellowship at DCU

Associate Fellow
If your professional role typically includes at least some teaching and/or learning support responsibilities, in applying for Associate Fellowship you will present an understanding of specific aspects of effective teaching, learning support methods and student learning.

Senior Fellow
You may be an experienced member of staff able to demonstrate impact and influence on other colleagues through, for example, responsibility for leading, managing or organising programmes, subjects and/or disciplinary areas. You will also be able to demonstrate a thorough understanding of effective approaches to teaching and learning support as a key contribution to high quality student learning.

Benefits of Fellowship
- Think about your professional and personal development planning
- Reflect on your strengths and identify areas for improvement
- Articulate your capabilities and increase your employability and progression prospects
- Portable, internationally recognised, AdvanceHE-accredited recognition of your practice in teaching and/or supporting learning

Principal Fellow
If you can demonstrate a sustained record of effective strategic leadership in academic practice and development and you are highly experienced with wide-ranging strategic leadership responsibilities in connection with key aspects of teaching and supporting learning. This may be particularly appropriate to Heads of Schools or those in a similar role.

How can I apply?
Application is directly through Advance HE. The DCU Teaching Enhancement Unit offers a supported programme of events and resources to scaffold the application process. Please register your interest here: https://bit.ly/AdvanceHEInterest.
