

Want to try something new?

“Anyone who stops learning is old, whether twenty or eighty. Anyone who keeps learning stays young. The greatest thing you can do is keep your mind young” – Mark Twain

Why not come and join us, at Dublin City University, the world’s first designated Age-Friendly University - leading a global network of Age Friendly Universities.

- Over 50 Modules in which you can participate without the need to take an exam or assessment. Starting at the end of January these 8 weeks modules take place weekly across our campuses in Drumcondra and Glasnevin.
- Our Love of Lifelong Learning Programme starts mid-February with modules in Life Writing, Genealogy, Digital Photography, Economics, Psychology, Books that changed the World, Historical Points in History, Exploring Religions: Texts and Turning Points and FREE Computer Classes.
- Our unique Lifelong Learning Association will keep you connected, informed and offers specialist workshops and social opportunities.

We work closely with our communities to engage as many older adults as possible with DCU.

So spread the word and come along – you’ll meet new people, make new friends and learn something new. We have extensive facilities on campus and plenty of opportunities

Details of our Programmes

DCU Modules Starting Jan 29th 2018
(€100 Audit/€500 Credit)

These modules run over 8 weeks.

These can be taken in two ways:

1. Audit – attend and take part in the class but do not take the assignments or assessment . You will get a Certificate of Attendance €100.00
2. Credit – attend and take part in the class and complete the assignments and assessments €500.
3. If you wish to take a module from this list:

Contact Christine O'Kelly on (01) 7008933 to discuss module options

- Complete a Registration form, (available from the website clearly indicating the required module).
- Attach a passport photo for your student ID card and provide proof of identity – current valid photo ID
- Bring all the information and the appropriate fee to the Registry Office (credit / debit card or by bank draft/cheque/postal order made payable to Registry) to the Admissions Office in Registry, Henry Grattan Building, Glasnevin Campus, Dublin City University, Dublin 9, before the commencement of Semester 2 lectures. Final date for payment 30h January.

All Classes start Week of Jan 29th with a break for Reading Week March 12th and Easter

- Poetry: A User's Guide / How & Why to Read It
- Modern European and American Drama
- Literature & Value: What Makes Great Books Great
- 19th Century Literature
- Modernism/Postmodernism
- Empire Writing and Post-Colonial Literatures
- Introduction to Judaism
- Introduction to Islam
- Theology of the Sacraments
- Introduction to Classical Arabic*

- Introduction to Biblical Hebrew*
- Science and Religion
- The Letters of Paul
- Introduction to Philosophy
- Cultural Studies
- Cultural Studies
- Psychology, Media and Creativity
- Crime and the Media
- Film, History and Theory
- Introduction to Law
- Introduction to European Integration
- Introduction to Modern Ireland
- The American Political System
- Introduction to Development
- America and the Wider World
- Data Analysis
- Introduction to Macroeconomics
- Introduction to Marketing
- IT Skills & Software Tools for Managers
- The Universe
- Space Science and Technology
- Intellectual Development of the Child
- The Social Context of Adulthood
- Ireland in Europe and the wider world
- Global Climates
- Landscape Heritage and identity
- The History of the Irish Landscape
- The World since 1945
- Europe, 1648-1848
- Psychopathology

Class participation is subject to class size and availability

DCU Love of Lifelong Learning Programme, 2018

All Classes €50.00

Classes start Week of Feb 12th with a break for Reading Week March 12th and Easter

- Books that Changed the World
- Digital Photography for Beginners
- Exploring Religion: Texts, Traditions and Important Topics
- Genealogy
- Historical Turning Points
- Life Writing Advanced
- Life Writing Beginners
- Psychology

Free Computer Classes

For further information:

Call : 01 700-8933

Visit our Website:

<https://www.dcu.ie/agefriendly/news>

Email: :christine.okelly@dcu.ie

Age-friendly
University
Global Network