

Dublin City University Intergenerational Solidarity Award 2020 Invitation to Participate

To mark the EU Day of Intergenerational Solidarity and Cooperation between Generations 2020, DCU invites you to submit a group project demonstrating good intergenerational practice in your community which engages all generations and is of benefit to both older and younger members of your community. This is Category 1 award and we are unable to accept individual entries.

This project can be in the form of:

- Poster Presentation
- Report with images
- Projects – IT, dancing, music, art, cooking, story-telling etc

The use of photographs, video footage, music etc. is encouraged and welcome.

Paired reading, skills transfer – sewing/cookery/, log on and learn, mentoring/sharing and other innovative projects are examples of the types of initiatives we are looking for as long as they engage and benefit younger and older people.

DCU also invites submissions for Category 2 individual awards for innovation (see below).

This year there will be an additional category for individuals demonstrating enterprise and innovative projects which assist or enhancing the lives of older people – this can be an innovative product or service.

There will be three Awards in Category 1

Gold, Silver and Bronze which will be presented in DCU on May 8th.

Every participant group receiving an award will receive a Certificate of Participation for all involved.

There will be 3 Awards in Category 2

Gold, Silver and Bronze which will be presented in DCU on May 8th.

Every individual receiving an award will receive a Certificate of Participation.

Closing date for receipt of submissions is Friday April 3rd

Please complete the attached expression of interest and return by April 3rd 2020.

Winners will be notified by April 22nd.

Awards will be presented on Friday May 8th 2020 on the DCU Campus to students and participants
