

INVITATION

You and your guest are cordially invited to join

The DCU Centre for Family Business
Legacy series workshop

The Family Business: preserving and transferring wealth

On Wednesday 19th November 2014

8 – 11.30am

in the DCU Ryan Academy, Citywest

This event is for incumbent and next generation family business owners and managers.

We encourage each business to bring multiple family members and generation as well as non-family executive team representatives.

Event Speakers & panellists:

Mr. Patrick Mulcahy - DCU Business School;
Mr. Tim Lynch - KPMG tax Director;
Dr. Eric Clinton - DCU Centre for Family Business.

Special Guest:

Mr. Vincent Carton from an 8th generation family business Manor Farm.

Event Facilitator:

Prof. Finian Buckley - DCU Business School.

Themes for discussion:

- Preserving family business wealth;
- Transferring family business;
- Planning financial future for the incumbent and the next generations.

RSVP:

familybusiness@dcu.ie or 01 700 6921

by Friday 7th November 2014

This seminar is exclusive for family businesses.
Please register soon as the availability is very limited!

Event Partner:

Our Supporters:

Quinn Family Foundation

BENNETT  HOSPITALITY

Deloitte.

DCU Centre for Family Business
Dublin City University, Glasnevin, Dublin 9
familybusiness@dcu.ie | 01 700 6921