All	Here we Go p. 66 Song This is the way we warm our hands
3	I wish I could make a snowman today
4	I love it when it snows
All	Here We Go p. 68 Poem Snowflakes
5	Did you know that in the country where Jesus was a boy there was never any snow?
6	It was a very hot country with long sunny days
7	But some long cold nights too
8	Some stories from the Bible were at night
9	One of our favourite stories was on a winter's night
10	There were shepherds outside with their flock of sheep. They had to sleep with the sheep to protect them from wolves and eagles and other wild animals.
11	The shepherds might have lit a fire to keep warm and to scare away the wild animals. They might have told stories or sang their favourite songs to pass the time.
12	Suddenly there was a bright light in the sky and the shepherds fell to the ground in shock. What could it be? Then they heard a voice.
13	Don't be afraid. I have good news for you. A baby has been born in Bethlehem. Go and see him lying in an animal's feeding trough.
14	That was amazing news. The shepherds went and saw the baby and worshipped him.
15	They must have had amazing stories to tell the next night in the fields.
16	We made snowflake prayers to thank God for winter.
17	Prayer Here we Go p. 69 God loves and cares for us always
