

Ollscoil Chathair
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City University

DCU SA PHOBAIL
DCU IN THE COMMUNITY

Psychology

QQI Level 5 award

This course is for those interested in the study of human behavior and human mind. It is designed to provide learners with an introductory understanding of psychology as a field of study.

The course will have a strong focus on connecting the theory of psychology to practice, such as therapies and interventions linked with the major psychological perspectives.

Comhairle Cathrach
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City Council

Start: 14th February 2020

Duration: 12 weeks, Fridays, 10.00am - 1.00pm

Venue: DCU in the Community, Shangan Road, Ballymun

Course Fee: €60 (€40 for medical card holders)
The fee includes certification and all course materials

Enrolments: Application form (deadline 10th February 2020) and short interview

Topics include:

- Introduction to psychology as a discipline
- Main psychological perspectives
- Personality: features and personality assessments
- Social psychology: characteristics, conformity, group behaviours
- Abnormal psychology: classifications and diagnoses
- Therapies and interventions
- Ethics in the study of psychology
- Research skills
- DCU Campus events and site visits

For further information and application forms, please contact:

Joanna Ozarowska, DCU in the Community
T 01 700 8800
E joanne.ozarowska@dcu.ie

Lynda Ward, Sillogue Neighbourhood Centre
T 01 563 5253
E lynda@cafta.ie

