

LIVES in LIMBO

Life inside Ireland's direct provision system for asylum seekers

OUR STORY

Sources: "A survey of asylum seekers' general practice service utilisation and morbidity patterns," Irish Medical Journal (2007); and "Prevalence of serious mental disorder in 7,000 refugees re-settled in western countries: a systematic review," the Lancet (2005).

De-Skilled & De-Motivated

OUR BUSINESS MODEL

ABOUT HOUSE OF AKI-NA

House of AKI-NA exists on our unique 3 E's concept

EDUCATION

EMPOWERMENT

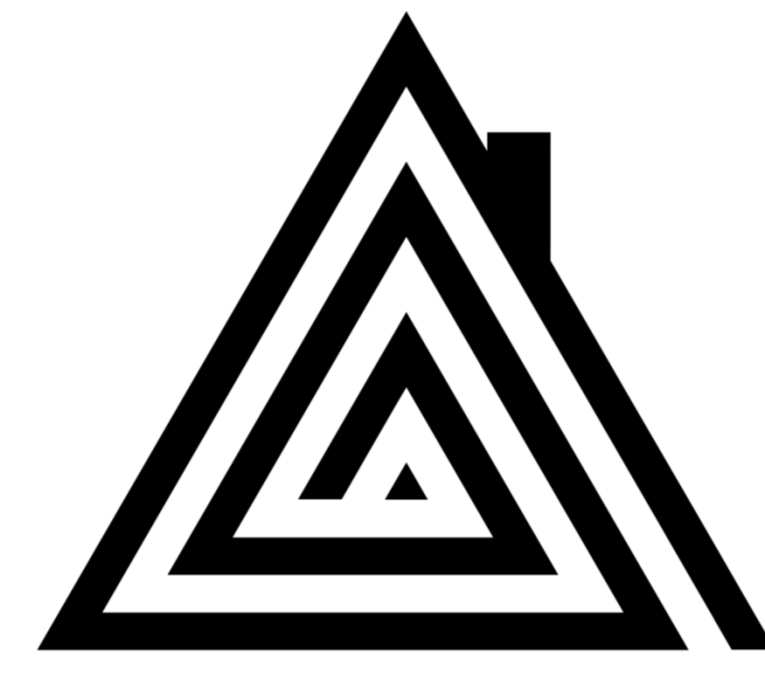

ETHICAL

EDUCATION (Via Workshops) Our profits are used to run training and educational workshops for Women living in direct provision centers across Ireland.

EMPLOYMENT via House of AKI-NA Platform (www.Houseofakina.ie)

ETHICAL (Via Production) Our products are hand-made locally in Dublin and we pay an Ethical wage to our designers, which create a chain of good between our people and our local Economy.

HOUSE OF AKI-NA

#HOUSEOFKINA
#NEWIRELAND

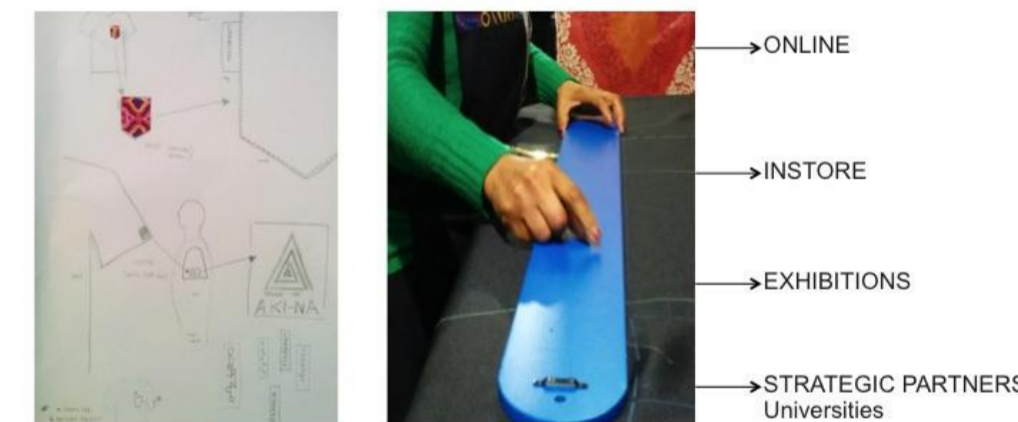

STRATEGIC ALLIANCE

3 Migrant Women Tailors Employed VIA workshops

Akidwa Design Powered By House of Aki-Na
Like This Page - November 30, 2015 - 10

Today, we were at the Ronanstown Women's Community Project House in Clondalkin. Our ladies participated in a 'Jewellery Upcycling Workshop', participants included migrant women from North Africa, East Africa, Latin America, Eastern Europe and the Middle-east As always we are proud to be able to facilitate workshops like this. #Houseofakina #Akiwadesign #Therapeutic #Transferable #Skills #3Es - in Clondalkin.

Design | Production | Sales

BESPOKE | Organisation

120 + Attendees

240 + Direct & Indirect Impact

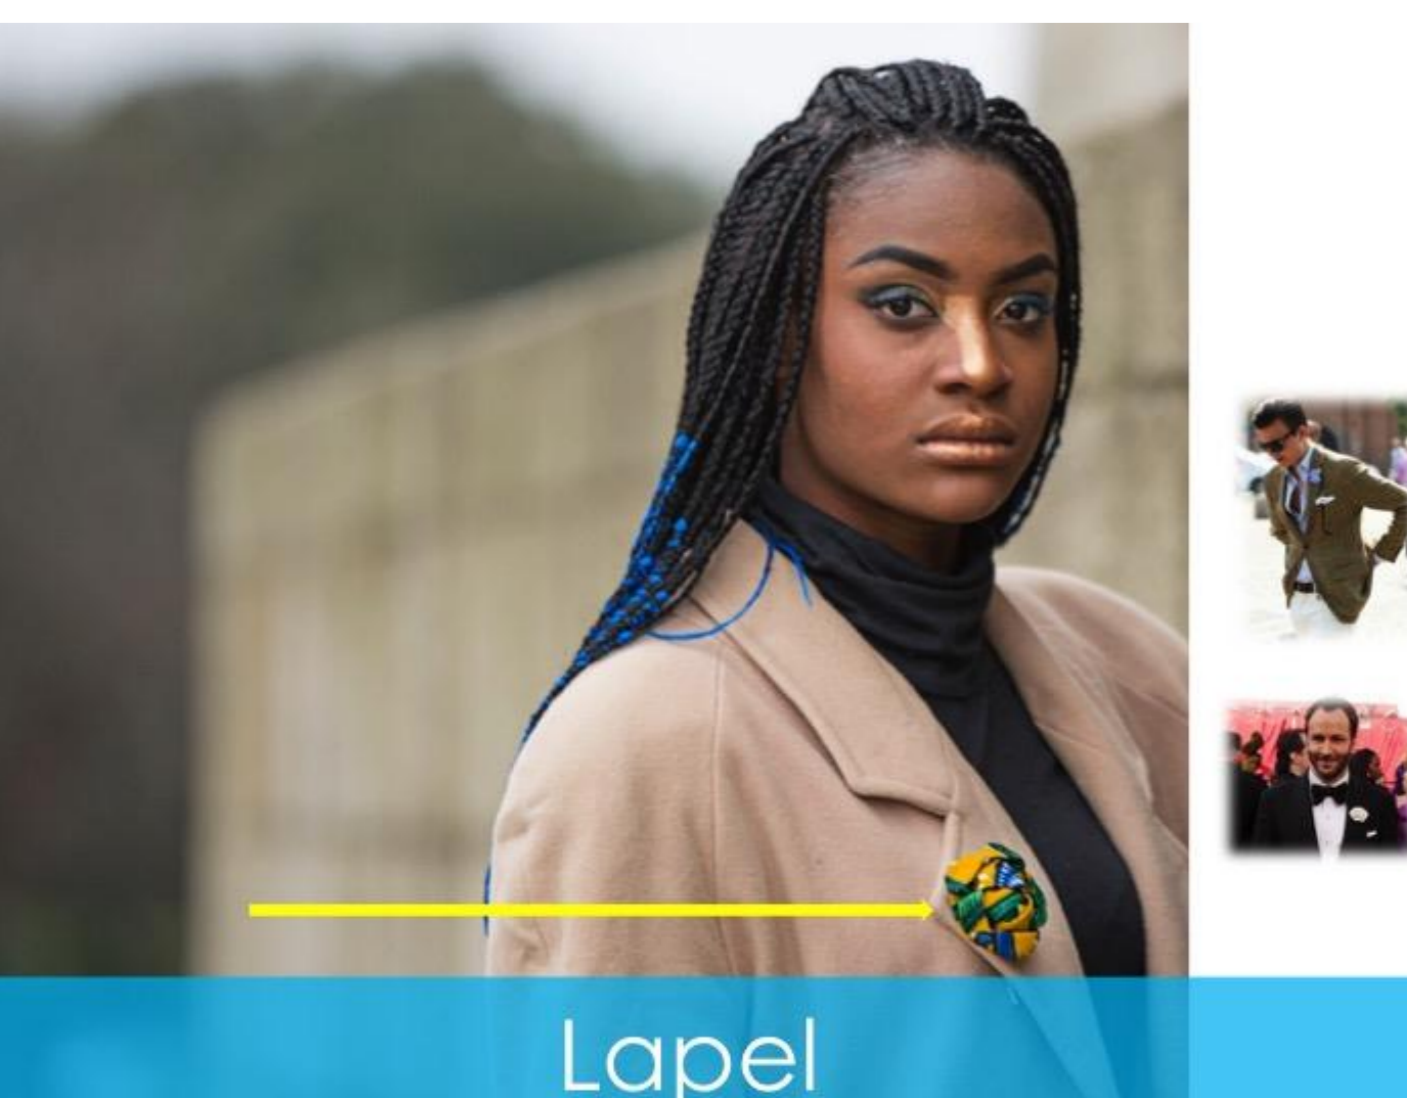

Ivana East Europe

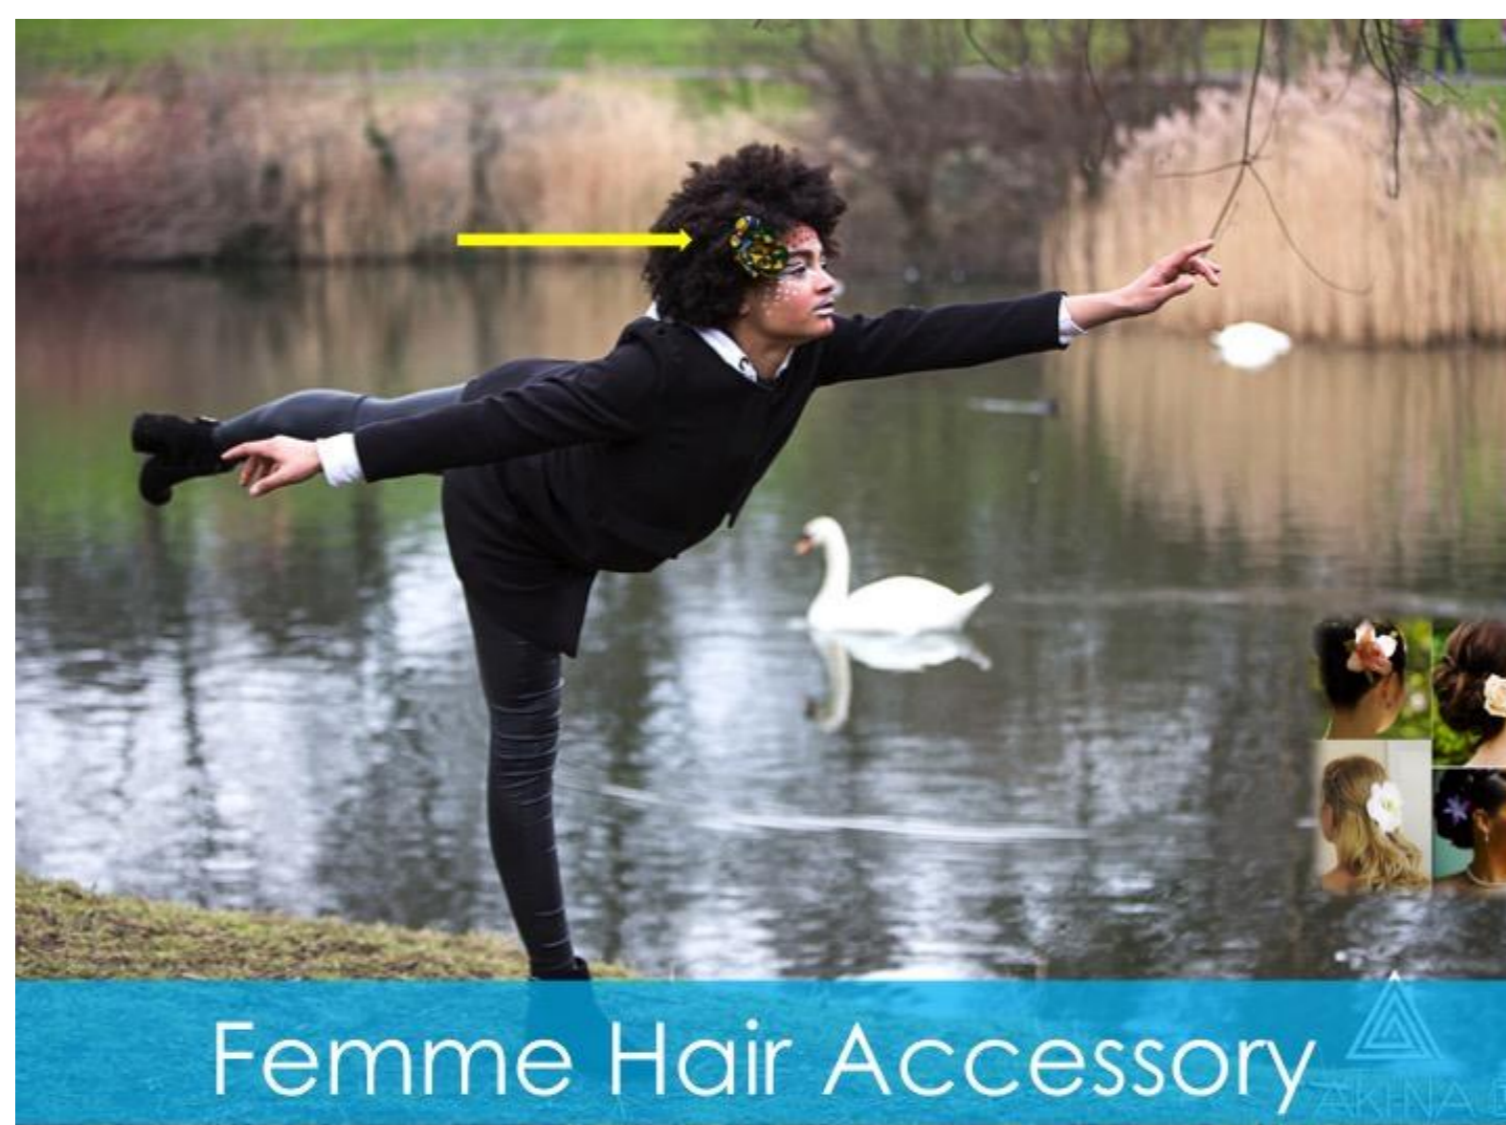

Alice West Africa

Patricia East Africa

Lapel

Femme Hair Accessory

BRAND AMBASSADOR PROGRAM