- Carry out regular online market research surveys and prepare reports on key findings.
- Produce, disseminate and deliver research outputs under the direction of the Head of the Ideas Lab.
- Complete project administrative duties.
- Carry out such other duties as may be determined and required from time to time by the Head of the Ideas Lab.

Experience and Requirements

The candidate must possess knowledge of virtual learning environments, multi-media applications and demonstrate a good knowledge of the field of digital learning. The candidate must hold a primary or a master's degree. A digital or information technology component in the aforementioned primary or master's and experience in a higher education environment is desirable. The successful candidate will exhibit a high degree of communication skills. The successful candidate will have advanced English language skills with a knowledge of the Irish language desirable.

Skills and Requirements

The successful candidate will:

- Demonstrate a clear understanding of relevant technologies required to support technology-enhanced learning and capacity to use the same.
- Possess excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to establish effective working relationships with a range of staff.
- Have the ability to work as an integral part of a team.
- Establish clear priorities and be able to manage their own workload.
- Experience with working with multimedia packages for learning including video and audio production and editing.
- Demonstrate excellent communication skills.
- Be willing to travel between campuses and work out of hours as necessary.
