

Faculty of Science and Health
School of Health and Human Performance
Associate Professor in Elite Performance
3 Year Fixed Term Contract

Job Overview and Responsibilities

Reporting to the Head of School the successful candidate will have extensive experience in Elite Performance and Talent Development in a research and applied setting. The duties and responsibilities associated with this post can be found in the job description.

Essential Criteria:

Applicants must be able to demonstrate evidence of:

- Skills and experience in the initiation, leadership and management of a Professional Doctorate programme of study;
- Specialism in the theory and application elite performance and talent development;
- An active research profile, including publication and graduate student supervision record, in the area of talent development and elite performance;
- Experience of working nationally and internationally with national governing bodies of sport in the field of talent development, with a recognised portfolio of applied work at an elite level;
- Experience of teaching at university level.

Qualifications: Applicants must hold a PhD (or equivalent) in a cognate area.

Salary scale: €73,387 - €95,917 (Associate Professor Scale)

* Appointments will be commensurate with qualifications and experience and will be made on the appropriate point of the salary scales, in line with current Government pay policy.

Closing Date: Friday 13th September 2019

Informal enquires: Informal enquiries should be directed to Sarahjane Belton, Head of School, School of Health and Human Performance, DCU: sarahjane.belton@dcu.ie.

Dublin City University is an equal opportunities employer.