

DCU BUSINESS SCHOOL

Professor/Associate Professor of Economics (Permanent position)

Dublin City University (www.dcu.ie) is a research intensive, globally-engaged and dynamic institution. With an enrolment of almost 16,500 students, it is now Ireland's fastest growing university and is ranked in the top 2% of universities globally with a consistent position in the top 50 of the almost 10,000 young universities worldwide (QS Top 50 under 50). Through its mission to transform lives and societies, DCU prepares its students for success in life by providing a high quality, rounded learning experience appropriate to the challenges and opportunities of the 21st century.

DCU Business School is a dynamic school whose history is marked by steep upward development. From the outset, our guiding voices were those of industry and students and, as a result, we are today distinctive for our deep and responsive industry engagement and our close concern with the success of our students. From those beginnings in the 1980s, and particularly over the last ten years, DCU Business School has developed an excellent research profile characterised by its industry relevance and a strong international reach. The School is accredited by AACSB and AMBA and our programmes have relevant professional accreditations. DCU Business School is an engaged, innovative internationally-focused school which prides itself on its excellent reputation for impacting students, the academic community, industry and wider society.

Position

Reporting to the Executive Dean of DCU Business School, the successful candidate will be expected to deliver leadership in the Economics discipline and more widely in the School, with regard to all areas of activity: Teaching, Research, Management/Service and External Engagement. We are particularly interested in candidates with expertise in the areas of: Business Economics, Economic Policy and Public Finances.

DCU Business School brings together academics who have established a strong international research reputation in topics spanning a wide range of disciplines: Accounting, Finance, Economics, Entrepreneurship, Human Resource Management and Organisational Psychology, Management and Marketing. There is a strong research culture in the School and we are proud to host three research centres: Centre for Cloud Computing and Commerce (IC4), the DCU Centre for Family Business and the DCU Leadership and Talent Institute. The School also supports a vibrant community of PhD scholars.

The School offers six undergraduate programmes and fifteen postgraduate programmes and currently has over 3,000 students. Economics faculty contribute to the full range of academic programmes within the School and are primarily responsible for the Economics specialisms on the BBS programme and the cross-faculty Economics, Politics and Law programme.

Further information concerning DCU Business School is provided in the Information Pack for Candidates available at:

www4.dcu.ie/sites/default/files/dcubs/pdfs/professor_appointments_2017.pdf

Key Responsibilities

Research

To lead research activity in DCU Business School by:

- Publishing new ideas and findings in top tier international journals
- Seeking funds from external agencies and/or organisations to support personal and School research initiatives.
- Leading the development of collaborative and interdisciplinary research within the School and wider university.
- Providing research mentorship to early career academics.
- Leading the dissemination of research via the hosting of research conferences, seminars etc.
- Enhancing the reputation of the School in the international research community via conference presentations, journal editorships, external examining, etc.
- Developing and leveraging international research networks to enrich the research activity of the School.
- Enriching the research culture and environment in the School.

Teaching

To lead teaching and learning activity in DCU Business School by:

- Delivering teaching in a manner consistent with the highest academic standards.
- Using a wide range of teaching and assessment methodologies which foster a deep approach to learning and which equip students with the skills and attributes needed to be lifelong learners.
- Leading the design and development of new programmes and modules that align with the School's strategy.
- Enriching the scholarship of teaching within the School.
- Fostering a culture of teaching innovation within the School.
- Contributing to the activities of the School's Centre for Executive and International Education
- Supervising PhD students and contributing to the School's PhD supervisory process.

Leadership/Management/Service

To contribute to the leadership, management and administration of the School by:

- Delivering management and service roles to a high standard (including roles such as, Group Head, Associate Dean, Deputy Dean and Executive Dean).
- Active engagement in accreditation-related activities.
- Contributing proactively to relevant School and University committees, working groups and meetings.
- Contributing to the running of DCU Business School's activities through participation in, for example, promotional events, INTRA (work placement) visits, etc.
- Engaging in, and contributing to, staff development activities.

External Engagement

To enhance the reputation of DCU Business School through engagement in, and leadership of, external academic, business (including consultancy), professional, public sector and community activities (approved by the Executive Dean, where appropriate).

Person Specification/Experience Requirements

Applications are invited from academics with a track record of achievement and leadership.

The successful candidate will have an international reputation for high quality research. More specifically, she/he must have a PhD in Economics or a related discipline, a track record of publishing in high quality international journals, a clearly defined research plan with a pipeline of future publications and activities, experience of seeking external research funding and evidence of effective research collaborations and networks. In terms of teaching and learning, she/he must have deep experience of teaching and programme development at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels, evidence of teaching excellence and innovation and a record of successful PhD supervision. Evidence of effective external engagement (academia, business community, media and wider society) is highly desirable and applicants must demonstrate a commitment to such activities which are in keeping with the School's mission and strategy and DCU's position as Ireland's University of Enterprise.

Candidates must demonstrate excellent interpersonal and communication skills consistent with the highest quality of teaching, research, management and external engagement, together with evidence of successful teamwork and a collegial approach. The successful candidate will play an important role in the further enrichment of the School's national and international reputation and she/he must display clear leadership attributes and skills and have the ability, and interest, to inspire and motivate colleagues with regard to all areas of activity of DCU Business School.

Salary Scale: €106,516 to €136,276 (Professor)

Salary Scale: €78,336 to €103,257 (Associate Professor)

Appointment will be commensurate with qualifications and experience and will be made on the appropriate point of the Professor salary or Associate Professor salary scales, in line with current Government pay policy.

Closing Date: 28th February 2017

Informal Enquiries:

Informal enquiries may be addressed to Professor Anne Sinnott, Executive Dean, DCU Business School (anne.sinnott@dcu.ie)

Application Procedure

Application forms are available from the DCU Current Vacancies (open Competitions) website at <http://www.dcu.ie/vacancies/current.shtml> and also from the Human Resources Department, Dublin City University, Dublin 9. Tel: +353 (0) 1 7005149.

Please clearly state the role that you are applying for in your application and email subject line: Job Ref 460 Professor/Associate Professor of Economics

Applications should be submitted by email to hr.applications@dcu.ie or by Fax: +353 (0)1 7005500 or by post to the Human Resources Department, Dublin City University, Dublin 9. Human Resources Department, Dublin City University, Dublin 9. Tel: +353 1 700 5149; Fax: +353 1 700 5500
Email: Insert hr.applications@dcu.ie

Dublin City University is an equal opportunities employer