

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

UNESCO Chair on Tackling Bullying in Schools and Cyberspace through a Global Partnership for Equality and Wellbeing with Dublin City University

Research Centre

National Anti-Bullying Research and Resource Centre

UNESCO Chair for Tackling Bullying in Schools and Cyberspace

Post Title

Research Assistant (Tackling Bullying & Online Safety)

Post Duration

Three Year Fixed Term Contract

Funder:

Facebook Instagram

Introduction

Dublin City University (www.dcu.ie) is a research-intensive, globally-engaged, dynamic institution that is distinguished by both the quality and impact of its graduates and its focus on the translation of knowledge into societal and economic benefit. DCU prepares its students well for success in life, and in the workplace, by providing a high-quality, rounded education appropriate to the challenges and opportunities of the 21st century. Through its mission to transform lives and societies through education, research and innovation, DCU acts as an agent of social, cultural and economic progress. DCU acts as an agent of social, cultural and economic progress. As Ireland's University of Enterprise, it is characterized by a focus on innovation and entrepreneurship and a track-record of effective engagement with the enterprise sector. Excellence in its education and research activities has led to its consistent ranking in the top 50 of the world's young universities (QS Top 50 under 50).

ABC – National Anti-Bullying Research and Resource Centre is a University Designated Research Centre within DCU's Institute of Education. It recently received the prestigious status of UNESCO Chair in Tackling Bullying in Schools and Cyberspace. The Centre is dedicated to the study of bullying behaviour/online safety in schools and workplaces and to the development of resources and training to support employers, employees, schools, teachers and parents to prevent and intervene in bullying situations and to promote online safety. ABC leads the field of research, resource development and training in tackling bullying and online safety in Ireland and is an internationally recognised centre of excellence in bullying research.

Background and Role

This post is funded by a donation from Facebook Instagram The successful candidate will work on a newly funded project which is concerned with delivering an anti-bullying and online safety programme in post-primary schools. The post also involves undertaking research related to the programme and contributing to the Centre's wider work in tackling bullying in schools and online safety. The project involves training teachers in post-primary schools to work with their colleagues, students and parents to tackle bullying and online safety. The programme will be delivered through face to face seminars and online resources. The project includes collaboration between DCU and advocacy groups who have partnered to work together to deliver the programme and to collect data related to project. The post-holders will be responsible for the day-to-day running of the project, communication with the partners, and meeting the deliverables of the project (under supervision from the Principal Investigator).

The selected candidates will work under the mentorship of the Centre's Director and contribute to the development of the Centre/UNESCO Chair's programme of activities.

Principal Duties and Responsibilities

The main duties of the position will include, but are not limited to:

- Develop and deliver a programme of training on tackling bullying and online safety to teachers in post-primary schools
- Undertaking a specified programme of research on tackling bullying and online safety
- Contribute to the development of resources and educational materials to be available online
- Contribute to appropriate dissemination material and results of the research (i.e. producing high quality scientific publications, reports) in which he/she is engaged the mentorship of the Principal Investigator
- Delivering research outputs and providing input into reports as required
- Attending and presenting results at project progress meetings (nationally and internationally)
- Liaising with both internal and external stakeholders
- Supporting the Centre Director and research group in the design, development and implementation of the broader research programme
- Contributing to the organization of academic and policy seminars and workshops
- Contributing to all aspects of the research programme under the supervision and direction of the Centre Director
- Contributing to teaching and outreach activities of the group
- Providing support and advice to PhD students working on similar topics
- Engaging in appropriate training and development opportunities as required by the Centre Director
- Carrying out administrative work associated with the programme of research and training as necessary

Skills and Experience

Applicants for the position must have at least a Master Degree, preferably a Doctorate, in a relevant discipline (e.g., psychology, education, sociology). The ideal candidate will have expertise in the field of research and/or education in tackling bullying and/or online safety. Candidates with a strong publication track record, or with experience in the management of research projects, are particularly encouraged to apply. The successful candidate should be capable of working in a team and contributing to developing the research and policy agenda and the activities of the National Anti-Bullying Research and Resource Centre/UNESCO Chair on Tackling Bullying in Schools and Cyberspace. Applications from those with a knowledge of research design/statistics, education and training, and/or online learning environments will be prioritised.

Please note this appointment will be subject to the candidate successfully completing the Garda Vetting and Foreign Police Certification Processes.

Salary: €27,901 to €29,540 (Point 9 to 11 of the IUA Research Assistant Scale)

Closing date: 22nd October 2018

Start date: January 2019

Informal enquiries to:

Professor James O'Higgins Norman, UNESCO Chair/National Anti-Bullying Research and Resource Centre, Dublin City University

E-mail: james.ohigginsnorman@dcu.ie Phone: +353 (0)1 884 2012

Please do not send applications to this email address, instead apply as described below

Application Procedure

Application forms are available from the DCU Current Vacancies (open Competitions) website at <http://www.dcu.ie/vacancies/current.shtml> and also from the Human Resources Department, Dublin City University, Dublin 9. Tel: +353 (0) 1 8842112.

Please clearly state the role that you are applying for in your application and email subject line: Job 1013 Postdoctoral Researcher in Bullying

Applications should be submitted by email to hr.applications@dcu.ie or by Fax: +353 (0)1 7005500 or by post to the Human Resources Department, Dublin City University, Dublin 9. Human Resources Department, Dublin City University, Dublin 9. Tel: +353 1 700 5149; Fax: +353 1 700 5500 Email: hr.applications@dcu.ie

Dublin City University is an equal opportunities employer