Applications are invited from suitably qualified candidates for the following position

Research Assistant

Ideas Lab

National Institute for Digital Learning

One Year Fixed Term Contract

Introduction

Dublin City University (www.dcu.ie) is a research-intensive, globally-engaged, dynamic institution that is distinguished by both the quality and impact of its graduates and its focus on the translation of knowledge into societal and economic benefit. DCU prepares its students well for success in life, and in the workplace, by providing a high-quality, rounded education appropriate to the challenges and opportunities of the 21st century. As Ireland’s University of Enterprise and Transformation, DCU is characterised by a focus on innovation and entrepreneurship and a track-record of effective engagement with the enterprise sector, including commercial, social and cultural enterprises. Excellence in its education and research activities has led to DCU’s consistent position in the rankings of the world’s top young universities.

The Institute

The National Institute for Digital Learning (NIDL) aims to be a world leader at the forefront of designing, implementing and researching new blended, on-line and digital (BOLD) models of education. We have a mission of transforming lives and societies by exploring BOLD new models of education for a better and more sustainable future for all. The NIDL is committed to providing strategic leadership, building strong communities of innovation, and enabling and contributing to world-class research. We support a comprehensive suite of professional development opportunities in BOLD education from workshops to advanced postgraduate and doctoral study. The NIDL consists of three units: the Teaching Enhancement Unit, the Ideas Lab and the Open Education Unit.
Role Profile

The Research Project Officer will work primarily on DCU’s Ideas Lab and NIDL projects to deliver DCU’s strategic ambitions in digital teaching, learning. These projects include the Fáilte ar Líne /Welcome on Line, Digi-Culture and Microcredential projects which are focused on researching and developing global digital learning solutions. Building upon existing pioneering research in digital learning, and working with a dynamic team of colleagues, this post offers an exciting opportunity for the successful candidate to make a significant contribution to the enhancement to research in this space. Under the direction of the Head of the Ideas Lab, you will work closely with a team of project staff including academics, learning technologists, researchers, external consultants and other partners to deliver the Ideas Lab and NIDL research objectives. The contract will be for a period of up to one year commencing on appointment.

Duties and Responsibilities:

Please refer to the job description for a full list of duties and responsibilities associated with this role

Qualifications, Experience and Skills required:

The candidate will hold a primary degree, with at least three years’ experience researching in a higher education. The ideal candidate must hold a doctoral degree or be in the final stages of a doctorate in research in online learning environments and cognitive and affective learner experiences in particular. The candidate should possess knowledge and experience of MOOC development, microcredentials and research environments and demonstrate deep knowledge of the field of digital learning. The successful candidate will exhibit a high degree of communication skills in both English and Irish with evidenced competency to degree level in the Irish language.

The successful candidate will:

- Demonstrate deep knowledge of online learning and affective and cognitive learner experiences, the field of microcredentials and higher education with publications in this area.
- Demonstrate a clear comprehension of relevant technologies required to conduct research in this domain
- Possess excellent social skills and the ability to establish effective working relationships with a range of staff.
- Experience working with research, academic and third-party stakeholders in a higher education environment.
- Have the ability to work as an integral part of a team.
- Establish clear priorities and be able to manage their own workload.
- Experience with working with project management packages.
● Demonstrate excellent communication skills in both English and Irish.
● Be willing to travel between campuses, from home and work out of hours as necessary.

Mandatory training

The post holder will be required to undertake the following mandatory compliance training: Orientation, Health & Safety and Data Protection (GDPR). Other training may need to be undertaken when required.

Informal enquiries in relation to this role should be directed to:

Dr. Mairéad Nic Giolla Mhichíl
Associate Professor and Head of the Ideas Lab
National Institute of Digital Learning & Fiontar agus Scoil na Gaeilge,
Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences
Email: mairead.nicgliammhichil@dcu.ie; Tel: +353 (0)1 700 6143.

*Please do not send applications to this email address, instead apply as described below.

Salary Scale:
(Research Assistant) Point 1 – Point 9 (€22,496 - €28,673)

*Appointment will be commensurate with qualifications and experience and will be made on the appropriate point of the salary scale in line with current Government pay policy.

Closing date: Friday 29th May 2020

Application Procedure:

Please clearly state the role that you are applying for in your application and email subject line: Job Ref #RF1362 Research Assistant – Ideas Lab

Applications should be submitted by e-mail to hr.applications@dcu.ie.

Athena SWAN Charter Dublin City University is an equal opportunities employer and holds an Athena SWAN Bronze Award. Information on a range of university policies aimed at creating a supportive and flexible work environment is available at http://www4.dcu.ie/policies/policy-starter-packs.shtml.

DCU is committed to promoting gender equality