2018/19 Semester 2
SALIS Seminar Series
Wednesdays 4-5 pm, C167
Promoting Excellent Research and Teaching Practices

06 February 2019  Dr. Ryoko Sasamoto (SALIS)
“Onomatopoeia, Translation and Relevance: A Corpus-Based Approach”

13 February 2019  Erika Marcet (SALIS PhD student)
“Using Design-Based Research to Develop Japanese as a Foreign Language Learners’ Pragmatic Competence”

20 February 2019  Dr. Teresa Lynn (The ADAPT Centre, DCU)
“Kunwinjku – Australian Aboriginal Language of West Arnhem”

27 February 2019  INTERACT Research Network
“Crisis Translation: A Case Study”

06 March 2019  Dr. Anik Nandi (Queen’s University, Belfast)
“Interrogating Castilian Linguistic Governance in Urban Galicia: Pro-Galician Family Language Policy Negotiations in the Home Space”

20 March 2019  Inga Wójcik (SALIS PhD student)
“Gender and Race among Young Adults of Nigerian Descent in Ireland”

27 March 2019  Dr. Agnès Maillot (SALIS)
“Je vais à la préfecture”: Teaching French to Migrants in Paris’

03 April 2019  Fan Xi (PhD Student, Maynooth University)
“A Longitudinal Study of Reading Development in a Cohort of Chinese Readers”

10 April 2019  Martin Toal (SALIS)
“Intercultural Communicative Competence: the Case of an Irish, Not-For-Profit, Community Based Organisation for the Homeless in the Republic of Ireland”

School of Applied Language and Intercultural Studies