Dublin City University

Dublin City University (DCU) is a young, ambitious and vibrant university, with a mission 'to transform lives and societies through education, research, innovation and engagement'. Known as Ireland's 'University of Enterprise', DCU is a values-based institution, committed to the delivery of impact for the public good. DCU was named Sunday Times Irish University of the Year 2021.

DCU is based on three academic campuses in the Glasnevin-Drumcondra region of north Dublin. More than 18,000 students are enrolled across five faculties – Science and Health, DCU Business School, Computing and Engineering, Humanities and Social Sciences and DCU Institute of Education.

DCU is committed to excellence across all its activities. This is demonstrated by its world-class research initiatives, its cutting-edge approach to teaching and learning, its focus on delivering a transformative student experience, and its positive social and economic impact. The university continues to develop innovative programmes in collaboration with industry, such as the DCU Futures suite of degrees, which are designed to equip graduates with the skills and knowledge required in a rapidly evolving economy.

DCU's pursuit of excellence has led to its current ranking among the top 2% of universities globally. It is also one of the world's Top Young Universities (QS Top 100 Under 50, Times Higher Top 150 Under 100). In the Times Higher Education University Impact Rankings 2021, DCU ranked 23rd in the world for its approach to widening participation in higher education and its ongoing commitment to eradicating poverty, while it ranks 38th globally for its work in reducing inequality and 89th globally for gender equality.

The university is ranked 23rd in the world and first in Ireland for its graduate employment rate, according to the 2020 QS Graduate Employability Rankings. Over the past decade, DCU has been the leading Irish university in the area of technology transfer, as reflected by licensing of intellectual property.

Overview of the department

In the context of its five-year strategic plan, Talent, Discovery and Transformation 2017-2022, DCU is currently in the process of implementing a cloud-based Student Information System (SIS) to assist our objectives as a globally engaged university. The SIS Programme has a key role to play in the achievement of the University strategic goals, leveraging the affordances of digital technology and systems integration to enhance the experience of both students and staff, and facilitate operational excellence. The SIS project is being mobilised in the Office of the Vice-President Academic Affairs to deliver this transformational change. A Project Management Office (PMO) has been established to co-ordinate and lead delivery, financial, resource and risk management working closely with the SIS Programme Delivery Streams and the solution provider(s).

Role Profile

The PMO is now actively seeking to recruit a Project Administrator to take responsibility for key SIS Programme administration support. The Project Administrator will work closely with and report to a SIS Project Manager.

Duties and Responsibilities

Please refer to the job description for a list of duties and responsibilities associated with this role.

Qualifications and Experience

- A minimum of 3 years' project administrative experience or equivalent, ideally, within the Higher Education sector;
- A strong customer service perspective and comprehension of Project Management techniques in a large and complex organisation encompassing diverse user communities;
- Possession of an agile or traditional project management qualification would be an advantage for this role;
- Proven track record in project administrative skills including financial management, planning, scheduling, reporting, resource management, communications, risk management, dependencies, scope, time quality and budget;
- Ability to work well within a broader team and demonstrate flexibility and openness;
- Ability to work with a high degree of professional effectiveness including producing accurate reports, meeting deadlines, prioritising and delivering quality work;
- Good social, communication and organisational skills and an ability to work with a variety of different project stakeholders.

Essential Training

The postholder will be required to undertake the following essential compliance training: Orientation, Health & Safety and Data Protection (GDPR). Other training may need to be undertaken when required.

Salary Scale:

Professional 4 (P4), Administrator Assistant - €37,530 - €55,890

Appointment will be commensurate with qualifications and experience and in line with current Government pay policy

Closing date: 19th April 2022
