Dublin City University
Dublin City University (DCU) is a young, ambitious and vibrant university, with a mission ‘to transform lives and societies through education, research, innovation and engagement’. Known as Ireland’s ‘University of Enterprise’, DCU is a values-based institution, committed to the delivery of impact for the public good. DCU was named Sunday Times Irish University of the Year 2021.

DCU is based on three academic campuses in the Glasnevin-Drumcondra region of north Dublin. More than 18,000 students are enrolled across five faculties – Science and Health, DCU Business School, Computing and Engineering, Humanities and Social Sciences and DCU Institute of Education.

DCU is committed to excellence across all its activities. This is demonstrated by its world-class research initiatives, its cutting-edge approach to teaching and learning, its focus on delivering a transformative student experience, and its positive social and economic impact. The university continues to develop innovative programmes in collaboration with industry, such as the DCU Futures suite of degrees, which are designed to equip graduates with the skills and knowledge required in a rapidly evolving economy.

DCU’s pursuit of excellence has led to its current ranking among the top 2% of universities globally. It is also one of the world’s Top Young Universities (QS Top 100 Under 50, Times Higher Top 150 Under 100). In the Times Higher Education University Impact Rankings 2021, DCU ranked 23rd in the world for its approach to widening participation in higher education and its ongoing commitment to eradicating poverty, while it ranks 38th globally for its work in reducing inequality and 89th globally for gender equality.

The university is ranked 23rd in the world and first in Ireland for its graduate employment rate, according to the 2020 QS Graduate Employability Rankings. Over the past decade, DCU has been the leading Irish university in the area of technology transfer, as reflected by licensing of intellectual property.

Overview of the department

Placements, including international study, international traineeships, work/industrial placements, clinical and practice placements have been a defining characteristic and an integral part of a large proportion of undergraduate programmes at DCU since its foundation. Recognising the very substantial contribution that placement makes to the personal and professional development of students, the University has made a strategic commitment to extend international study placement opportunities to a wider range of undergraduate programmes. The International Mobility Team’s area of focus is on accredited student placement in partner universities internationally, and hosting of partner institutions’ students in DCU. It also includes staff mobility. It is part of the DCU Placement Unit, a unit that facilitates and supports accredited placement in enterprise and academic settings, both nationally and internationally, and has oversight of professional clinical and practice placement activities. The International Mobility staff work closely with DCU Faculties and Schools, Academic Programme leads, DCU Global Recruitment, and central support units (such as Registry, Student Support & development), external placement partners and stakeholders. The team are student facing. The International Mobility team strive to improve and enhance the international mobility experience of all students, staff and partners. Student experience is a core

Role Profile
The Senior International Mobility Officer will direct and manage the International Mobility function to provide a professional and comprehensive service to students to ensure that DCU students have a positive and life enhancing international mobility experience. The successful candidate will report to the Director of Placement or nominee and will liaise with administrative colleagues, Faculties, Schools, central support units, and external stakeholders on a regular basis. The successful candidate will be a motivated self-starter, with primary accountability for the implementation of comprehensive professional administration of a number of specified areas including Study Abroad, Exchange, Erasmus+, Staff Mobility and any others determined by the Director of Placement or nominee(s). The role involves communication with multiple stakeholders including national organisations and Government Departments, the use of business systems, adherence to strict deadlines, the ability to deal efficiently with data, reporting of data, teambuilding and management, and simultaneous progression of multiple processes. The successful candidate will be located in the DCU Placement Unit on Glasnevin Campus, Dublin 9.
