Dublin City University

Dublin City University (DCU) is a young, ambitious and vibrant university, with a mission ‘to transform lives and societies through education, research, innovation and engagement’. Known as Ireland’s ‘University of Enterprise’, DCU is a values-based institution, committed to the delivery of impact for the public good. DCU was named Sunday Times Irish University of the Year 2021.

DCU is based on three academic campuses in the Glasnevin-Drumcondra region of north Dublin. More than 18,000 students are enrolled across five faculties – Science and Health, DCU Business School, Computing and Engineering, Humanities and Social Sciences and DCU Institute of Education.

DCU is committed to excellence across all its activities. This is demonstrated by its world-class research initiatives, its cutting-edge approach to teaching and learning, its focus on delivering a transformative student experience, and its positive social and economic impact. The university continues to develop innovative programmes in collaboration with industry, such as the DCU Futures suite of degrees, which are designed to equip graduates with the skills and knowledge required in a rapidly evolving economy.

DCU’s pursuit of excellence has led to its current ranking among the top 2% of universities globally. It is also one of the world’s Top Young Universities (QS Top 100 Under 50, Times Higher Top 150 Under 100). In the Times Higher Education University Impact Rankings 2021, DCU ranked 23rd in the world for its approach to widening participation in higher education and its ongoing commitment to eradicating poverty, while it ranks 38th globally for its work in reducing inequality and 89th globally for gender equality.

The university is ranked 23rd in the world and first in Ireland for its graduate employment rate, according to the 2020 QS Graduate Employability Rankings. Over the past decade, DCU has been the leading Irish university in the area of technology transfer, as reflected by licensing of intellectual property.
Overview of the department

The role of the Teaching Enhancement Unit (TEU) is to support innovation and excellence in teaching across DCU. TEU is a centralised service unit in the Office of the Vice President Academic Affairs (OVPAA), which reports to the Dean of Teaching and Learning (nominee of the VP Academic Affairs/Registrar). It provides research-informed leadership in teaching and learning guided by DCU’s Strategic Plan and the University’s Teaching and Learning Plan. The TEU has two core functions: Firstly, the TEU team is focused on strengthening academic staff capabilities to develop innovation, teaching excellence, and flexibility in delivering on the University’s commitment to a transformative student learning experience. Secondly, the TEU manages and assists DCU’s virtual learning environment (VLE) known as Loop.

The TEU team is also currently actively involved in national professional development initiatives supported by the National Forum for the Enhancement of Teaching and Learning in Higher Education and related professional bodies. They are well-known nationally for their work in supporting teaching enhancement and for their leadership in using new digital technologies for teaching, learning and assessment.

Role Profile

This is an exciting opportunity to lead the Teaching Enhancement Unit (TEU) and a team of highly committed and experienced Academic Developers and Learning Technologists as DCU embarks on a new Strategic Plan. Reporting directly to the Dean of Teaching and Learning, the Head of TEU is expected to play an active and strategic role in assisting Faculties and the implementation of DCU’s Plans relating to Teaching and Learning. The post holder will build key relationships with the Dean of Teaching and Learning, Associate Deans for Teaching and Learning, Colleagues across OVPAA (in DCU Studio, Academic Systems etc.), DCU’s Chair of Digital Learning Heads of Schools Head of Learning and Development Unit and other units and departments as required.
