1. Programme Specific Rules and Requirements

1.1 Calculation for the Award Classification

The calculation of the final year award classification includes contributions from previous year's results, as follows:

Year/Subject contribution	Contribution to the Award classification
Year 2	20%
Year 3	20%
Year 4	60%

1.2 Monitored Attendance

Class attendance will be monitored in all modules. It is each student's personal responsibility to sign in to class.

2. Derogations from Marks and Standards

Marks and Standards apply.

3. Progression

3.1 Credits for progression

Students must have successfully completed a minimum of 60 credits in a study period in order to progress to the next study period.

3.2 Carrying of modules

Students will not be permitted to 'carry' modules under any circumstances.

3.3 Exit Awards

Students will normally progress through to the award of the degree. A student who withdraws from the programme having failed to complete the requirements successfully will receive an official transcript indicating modules completed.

To facilitate students who have satisfactorily completed all language modules of the BEdLan programme (60 credits over two years), but who have been unsuccessful in the Professional Preparation and Practice element, exit route to be introduced to year 2 of BEdLan Programme.

Exit route at the end of year two of the BEdLan programme: Diploma in Education Studies and Languages (Level 7)

To facilitate students who have satisfactorily completed all language modules of the BEdLan programme (60 credits over two years), but who have been unsuccessful in the Professional Preparation and Practice element: Diploma in Education Studies and Languages (Level 7)

To facilitate students who have satisfactorily completed all taught elements (Theoretical modules) of the BEdLan degree programme, (180 ECTS over four years) but who may wish to exit with an alternative degree: BA in Education Studies and Languages (Level 8).

3.4 Year Abroad / Erasmus Regulations

Students must have passed all their modules in the January diet of exams in Second Year before they APPLY for Study Abroad, except for extenuating circumstances.

Where a partner institution is oversubscribed in terms of student demand, first year precision marks shall be used to determine choice ranking.

Students doing the Year Abroad are normally required to resit failed elements of Year 3 coursework at the partner university.

Where the partner university does not allow for this and where students have accumulated a minimum of 15 of the required 20 DCU-equivalent credits required in Year 3 the Year Abroad Coordinator, in conjunction with relevant colleagues, will set resit examinations/assignments in DCU. The deadline for the completion of such examinations/assignments will be determined by the date of the Year 3 final PAB.
