2. Derogations from Marks and Standards

Marks and Standards apply to years 1 and 2 - taught modules.
Years 3 to 4 are governed by Academic Regulations for Postgraduate Degrees by Research & Thesis.

3. Progression

3.1 Credits for progression

Candidates must have passed all seven modules (120 credits) before progressing to year 3 for the research work. Students are registered as "Continuous" students until the completion of 120 credits (normally two academic years). Should students not pass the modules in any given year they will retake the modules at the next available opportunity. The modules only run every two years. Following completion of all 7 taught modules they will transfer to year three of the programme for the research work.

3.2 Exit Awards

MPhil in Education: Students who have successfully completed 120 taught credits may request to exit with a MPhil in Education.

4. Compensation

Marks and Standards apply
