Fixed-Term Contract up to 28th February 2025

Dublin City University

Dublin City University (DCU) is a leading innovative European University. It is proud to be one of the world's leading Young Universities and is among the world's top 2% globally. DCU is known as Ireland's University of Impact, with a mission to 'transform lives and societies' and focuses on addressing global challenges in collaboration with key national and international partners and stakeholders.

DCU has over 20,000 students in five faculties spread across three academic campuses in the Glasnevin-Drumcondra area of North Dublin. Thanks to its innovative approach to teaching and learning, the University offers a 'transformative student experience' that helps to develop highly sought-after graduates. DCU is currently No. 1 in Ireland for Graduate Employment Rate, and for graduate income (CSO).

DCU is a research-intensive University and is home to a number of SFI-funded Research Centres. The University participates in a range of European and international research partnerships. DCU is also the leading Irish university in the area of technology transfer as reflected by licensing of intellectual property.

As a 'People First' institution, DCU is committed to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion - a University that helps staff and students to thrive. The University is a leader in terms of its work to increase access to education, and is placed in the world's Top 10 for reducing inequalities in the Times Higher Education Impact Rankings.

Project Overview

Over its relatively short history, DCU has developed a strong reputation nationally and internationally for pioneering innovations in higher education. The university is embarking on a period of significant investment in learning innovation across all of its Faculties. The DCU Futures initiative will help us transform the learning experience of undergraduate students at DCU, reconceptualizing learning opportunities, creating authentic connections between the classroom and enterprise, and embedding digital literacies, disciplinary competencies and transversal skills required to truly future-proof our graduates for the rapidly changing workplace. DCU is joined in this project by a strong consortium of enterprise partners, representing key employment sectors in the Irish economy and with a strong presence in DCU's primary catchment area. This programme of innovation is funded under the Irish government's Human Capital Initiative (HCI) supported by the National Training Fund. It will deliver on the ambitions we have to reimagine undergraduate curricula and to embed innovative pedagogies, enhanced use of technology and deep industry engagement.

Further to this DCU as a partner of the Irish University Association led HCI project to develop a Multi-Campus Micro-Credentials (MicroCreds) will develop innovative micro-credential offerings. Through the MicroCreds project, the IUA universities will lead the establishment of a national framework for European Credit Transfer System bearing, quality-assured micro-credentials, the first in Europe. This will facilitate the development of a programme of micro-credentials, each flexibly delivered and accredited by a university and included within the National Framework of Qualifications (NFQ). The project furthers the universities' commitment to work in partnership with government and enterprise to drive lifelong learning in Ireland.

Role Profile

The Micro-Credential Project Officer will support implementation related to DCU's MicroCreds Micro-credentialing initiative. Building upon existing pioneering developments in micro-credentials, this post offers an exciting opportunity for the successful candidate to play a central role in the rollout of DCU's micro-credentialing strategy. Under the direction of the Director of Micro-credentials Strategy and Innovation and the MicroCreds Institutional Project Manager, you will work closely with project staff and other partners to achieve all project goals. You will also collaborate with colleagues from the MicroCreds IUA project team, DCU Studio colleagues, MicroCreds personnel in partner institutions and in other micro-credentialing initiatives.
