DCU Business School Dublin City University

Dr. Marta Rocchi of DCU Business School is looking to host an experienced researcher via funding through Marie Skłodowska-Curie Postdoctoral Fellowships. In order to secure funding, the experienced researcher must develop a proposal with the host for the September 14th, 2022 deadline.

Organisation Description

DCU Business School is the AACSB accredited business school of Dublin City University, Dublin, Ireland. We have redefined the boundaries of the traditional business school, collaborating on multiple levels with business, with industry and with the government.

Our high level of industry engagement makes us stand out, and it is a way to nourish our research with constantly updated content and with a transparent contact with the reality of business.

Project idea and researcher opportunities

Research Field:

Marta Rocchi's research currently focuses on the ethics of artificial intelligence and the new perspectives of business ethics in the future of work; she has an active line of research also on virtue ethics in business and finance, with a focus on both conceptual contributions and teaching implications. She would be open to discuss projects in one of these lines of research, or in similar fields.

Researcher Requirements

- The researcher must fulfil the MSCA-PF mobility<sup>1</sup> and should not be more than 8 years post PhD at the deadline of the call.
- Applicants should have a PhD in a relevant area of business ethics/finance ethics/ethics of artificial intelligence and demonstrate a promising track record of early research achievements.

<sup>1</sup> Recruited researchers must comply with the following mobility rule: they must not have resided or carried out their main activity (work, studies, etc.) in the country of the beneficiary (for European Postdoctoral Fellowships), or the host organisation for the outgoing phase (for Global Postdoctoral Fellowships) for more than 12 months in the 36 months immediately before the call deadline (<https://bit.ly/39QTUQg>).

Furthermore, regarding Global Fellowships, applicants must be nationals, or long-term residents, of an EU Member State or Associated Country. (Long-term residents definition: a period of at least 5 consecutive years spent in an EU Member State or Associated Country, prior to the 14th September 2022).
