

MA in Ethics Scholarships

2 year part-time

Call for Letter of Interest

DCU's School of Theology, Philosophy, and Music is pleased to offer scholarships for the MA in Ethics (DC688) programme for students beginning in September 2022.

Funded by the Mater Dei Scholarship and Grant Committee, the scholarships provide €2,000 per year towards fees over both years of the two-year programme (i.e. 2022/2023 and 2023/2024). Students are expected to self-fund the remaining part of the fees for each year.

Applicants must meet the University's General Entry and Application Requirements for the MA in Ethics which can be found here. Applicants will also need to send a Letter of Interest which outlines the following:

- their reasons for applying for the MA in Ethics, making a case for their suitability and the potential impact of their study on their profession / occupation (1000-1500 words)
- a Curriculum Vitae
- contact details of two referees

If successful, in order to formally be awarded a scholarship, applicants will need to provide confirmation that they have applied to the MA in Ethics (DC688) programme on the DCU Student Application Portal within three days of being notified of the scholarship award and accept any subsequent offer of a place on the programme.

Scholarship application closing date: Friday, 20th May 2022, 5pm. Shortlisted applicants may be interviewed.

Letter of Interest should be sent to: alan.kearns@dcu.ie
