Employee Relations & HR Service Delivery Manager
Professional 6
Human Resource Department
Permanent Contract

Dublin City University

Dublin City University (DCU) is a leading innovative European University. It is proud to be one of the world's leading Young Universities and is among the world's top 2% globally. DCU is known as Ireland's University of Impact, with a mission to 'transform lives and societies' and focuses on addressing global challenges in collaboration with key national and international partners and stakeholders.

DCU has over 20,000 students in five faculties spread across three academic campuses in the Glasnevin-Drumcondra area of North Dublin. Thanks to its innovative approach to teaching and learning, the University offers a 'transformative student experience' that helps to develop highly sought-after graduates. DCU is currently No. 1 in Ireland for Graduate Employment Rate, and for graduate income (CSO).

DCU is a research-intensive University and is home to a number of SFI-funded Research Centres. The University participates in a range of European and international research partnerships. DCU is also the leading Irish university in the area of technology transfer as reflected by licensing of intellectual property.

As a 'People First' institution, DCU is committed to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion - a University that helps staff and students to thrive. The University is a leader in terms of its work to increase access to education and is placed in the world's Top 10 for reducing inequalities in the Times Higher Education Impact Rankings.

Overview of the Department

The University is organised around a number of academic faculties with their associated Schools and Research Centres. There are also a number of supporting offices and units together with campus companies. The Human Resources (HR) Department is a central professional services department, which is responsible for providing a complete Human Resources service to these faculties, departments and campus companies.

The Role

Reporting to the Director of HR or their nominee, the Employee Relations and HR Service Delivery Manager will assist in ensuring that the employee relations agenda is met and delivered upon within the University, its research centres and its associated commercial companies. In addition he postholder will have a key role in supporting the connection of HR strategy to the various stakeholder groups at school/unit level. The postholder will be responsible for developing localised HR solutions to meet particular requirements to support achievement of objectives. The postholder will provide direct HR support to a small number of units. The postholder will also be expected to actively participate in HR Operational Excellence initiatives and it is envisaged that this activity will account for at least 20% of this role.
