Dublin City University

Dublin City University (DCU) is a leading innovative European University. It is proud to be one of the world's leading Young Universities and is among the world's top 2% globally. DCU is known as Ireland's University of Impact, with a mission to 'transform lives and societies' and focuses on addressing global challenges in collaboration with key national and international partners and stakeholders.

DCU has over 20,000 students in five faculties spread across three academic campuses in the Glasnevin-Drumcondra area of North Dublin. Thanks to its innovative approach to teaching and learning, the University offers a 'transformative student experience' that helps to develop highly sought-after graduates. DCU is currently No. 1 in Ireland for Graduate Employment Rate, and for graduate income (CSO).

DCU is a research-intensive University and is home to a number of SFI-funded Research Centres. The University participates in a range of European and international research partnerships. DCU is also the leading Irish university in the area of technology transfer as reflected by licensing of intellectual property.

As a 'People First' institution, DCU is committed to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion - a University that helps staff and students to thrive. The University is a leader in terms of its work to increase access to education and is placed in the world's Top 10 for reducing inequalities in the Times Higher Education Impact Rankings.

Overview of the Faculty

The Faculty comprises three Schools, namely Computing, Electronic Engineering and Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering, each of which is managed by a Head of School. There are also a number of significant research institutes/centres within the Faculty. The Executive Dean is its Chief Executive Officer. The Faculty is administered through a Faculty Office for which the Faculty Manager has overall management responsibility.

The administrative infrastructure which supports Faculty activity is the remit of the Faculty Support Unit.

The Role

This position is located within the Faculty Office and is based on the Glasnevin campus. The post holder will play a leadership role within the Faculty Support Unit. S/he will be responsible for the efficient and effective management and co-ordination of operational activities within the Faculty administrative framework. The appointee will work with other Units to input into, and remain informed of, systems developments and to ensure the efficient and streamlined delivery of processes. The Senior Administrative Officer (Research) reports to the Faculty Manager/nominee.
