Intergenerational Solidarity Award 2023 Invitation to Participate

To mark the EU Day of Intergenerational Solidarity and Cooperation between Generations 2022, DCU invites you to submit a group project demonstrating good intergenerational practice in your community which engages all generations and benefits both older and younger members of the community.

This project can be in the form of:

- Poster Presentation
- Report with images
- Projects – IT, dancing, music, art, cooking, story-telling etc

The use of photographs, video footage, music etc. is encouraged and welcome.

Paired reading, skills transfer – sewing/cookery/, log on and learn, mentoring/sharing, and other innovative projects are examples of the types of initiatives we are looking for as long as they engage and benefit younger and older people.

There will be two categories of Award:

Category 1 School Awards - Gold, Silver and Bronze for innovative and engaged group projects.

Category 2 TY Business Award - A single award will be presented to an individual student or student group who has developed an age-related product or service as part of their TY Business Project.

All participants who take part will receive a Certificate of Participation.

Closing date for project applications: Friday, 31st March 2023.
