Learning and Organisational Development Consultant (Administrator I)
Human Resources Department
Fixed Term Three Year Contract

Dublin City University www.DCU.ie is a young, ambitious and vibrant University, with a mission ‘to transform lives and societies through education, research, innovation and engagement’. Known as Ireland’s ‘University of Enterprise and Transformation’, it is committed to the development of talent, and the discovery and translation of knowledge that advances society and the economy. DCU is the Sunday Times Irish University of the Year 2021.

The University is based on three academic campuses in the Glasnevin-Drumcondra region of north Dublin. It currently has more than 18,000 students enrolled across five faculties – Science and Health, DCU Business School, Computing and Engineering, Humanities and Social Sciences and DCU Institute of Education. DCU is committed to excellence across all its activities. This is demonstrated by its world-class research initiatives, its cutting-edge approach to teaching and learning, its focus on creating a transformative student experience, and its positive social and economic impact. This exceptional commitment on the part of its staff and students has led to DCU’s ranking among the top 2% of universities globally. It also consistently features in the world’s Top 100 Young Universities (currently in QS Top 70 Under 50, Times Higher Top 150 Under 100).

DCU is placed 84th in the world, in the Times Higher Education University Impact Rankings – measuring higher education institutions’ contributions towards the UN Sustainable Development Goals. Over the past decade, DCU has also been the leading Irish university in the area of technology transfer, as reflected by licensing of intellectual property.

The Human Resources Department (HR)
HR provides a comprehensive human resources service to approximately 3,400 staff based in the Faculties, Departments, Research Centres and Campus Companies of the University. It is responsible for managing the employee life cycle from the initial application and appointments process to the end of their employment with the University while also providing support to its retired community of c. 460. Also, HR plays an important role in the governance, management committees and project groups of the University.

The HR Mission for the University and its staff is to be an employer of choice that builds a staff community where each of its members can flourish and thrive in a work environment that is stimulating, rewarding and respectful, with each having the opportunity to achieve their full potential and successfully contribute to the University’s goals.
Role Profile

Applicants are invited from suitably qualified candidates for the position of Learning and Development Consultant. The successful candidate will report to the Head of Learning and Organisational Development, Human Resources Department. The role holder will have experience and expertise in the design and delivery of Organisational Development programmes focused on Change Management, Adaptability, Change Leadership. The role will involve diagnosing capability gaps, designing innovative learning solutions and delivering these solutions to colleagues at all levels across the organisation. Evaluation of Learning effectiveness and behavioural change will be key to measuring success. As a team member of the Learning & Organisational Development team, the role holder will be expected to engage in other areas of team delivery including internal design, delivery, facilitation and evaluation and contribute to the Learning culture of the University.

This role will involve proactive management of key stakeholders across the University including Leaders and HR colleagues to assess capability gaps, propose Learning solutions and regular updates on Learning & Organisational Development initiatives.

Key Responsibilities

The Learning and Organisational Development Consultant will lead the development and integration of solutions to meet the organisational needs of the University, with a particular focus on Change Capabilities. They will design, plan and lead the delivery of programmes, implementing best-practice learning methodologies and evaluation. Under the direction of the Head of Learning & Organisational Development, the post holder will have the following key responsibilities:

- Diagnose and develop a University-wide approach to change capability in order to support the University transformation agenda.
- Influence and consult with senior Leaders across the University to effect change and use capability initiatives to enable transformation.
- Create Organisational Development initiatives to enable leaders to effectively lead and deliver Organisational change in their units.
- Design and deliver Organisational Development programmes to enabling the University’s Strategy, e.g. Leadership Development Programmes, Change Capability Initiatives.
- Collaborate with key programmes of transformation, such as the Student Information System (SIS) programme and DCU Futures, to build learning interventions that will enable change in the organisation.
- Deliver other learning and development programmes including, personal skills, career development programmes, academic and researcher development initiatives and bespoke programmes.
- Facilitate group sessions to support the University and units experiencing change. Use innovative learning approaches, exploring new technology where appropriate. Manage relationships with external consultants/resources for key programmes.
- Develop an open knowledge-sharing environment and actively contribute to the HR team in a manner that builds knowledge, skills and capability.
- Undertake duties of a general nature or additional tasks that may be required by the Head of Learning & Organisational Development and the Director of Human Resources or nominee.

The above attempts to outline in a broad way the range of duties associated with this post. While not being exhaustive, it does attempt to indicate the range and level of duties associated with the post.
Qualifications

- A primary degree or equivalent in a related field is required.
- A postgraduate qualification is desirable.

Knowledge and Experience

- A minimum five years’ relevant experience, at managerial or specialist level, in a large organisation.
- An ability to diagnose capability gaps, design innovative learning solutions and facilitate learning interventions.
- Experience of Organisational Change, including design and delivery of Capability initiatives to support Change.
- Ability to work autonomously with ownership of outcomes for key projects.
- Experience in working with Leaders and the ability to develop strong working relationships across the University.
- Excellent IT skills.
- An excellent communicator, both verbal and written, with strong Presentation Skills.
- A high degree of flexibility.
- A practical understanding of current organisational development issues facing public sector organisations.

Mandatory Training

Post holders will be required to undertake the following mandatory compliance training: GDPR and Compliance. Other training may need to be undertaken when required.