

School of Communications Research Seminar Series Semester 2 2020 - 2021

The DCU School of Communications presents the following seminar programme:

Tuesdays, 12 noon - 12.50 pm

Virtual event - Zoom link will be forwarded the week of the lecture

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| 9 February | Dave Robbins (School of Communications, DCU):
'Ireland and the Climate Crisis - Perspectives from the Humanities and Social Sciences' |
| 23 February | Neil Ward (School of Communications, DCU):
'Media Hostility Towards Public Sector Unions in the 2008 Crisis' |
| 9 March | Miriam Judge (School of Communications, DCU):
'From Mobile Learning to Learning Assessment: Leveraging Erasmus+ Funding to Support Research Projects and Outputs' |
| 23 March | Kevin Doyle (School of Communications, DCU):
'Making Authoritarianism 'Likeable': Social Media, Symbolic Capital, and Regime Resilience in Cambodia' |
| 6 April | Trish Morgan (School of Communications, DCU):
'Sensing Our World: How Digital Cultural Practices Can Contribute to Changing Social Norms Around Consumption' |