

Ollscoil Chathair
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City University

School of English Research Seminar Series Semester Two 2021-2022

The DCU School of English presents the following seminar series:

Virtual event via Zoom - Contact susan.byrne@dcu.ie for Zoom invitations

Wednesday, 26 January at 4.00 pm
Allison Hudson (PhD Student, School of English, DCU)
'L.M. Montgomery and Material Culture'

Wednesday, 16 February at 4.00 pm
Thomas Caffrey (PhD Student, School of English, DCU)
'Reluctant Actors: Rhymes and Recurrences in Haruki Murakami'

Wednesday, 2 March at 4.00 pm
Laura O'Flanagan (PGT Student, School of English, DCU) and Paul O'Flanagan (Senior Television Director, Boulder Media)
'Lockdown Projects and Memento Mori: Bringing A Short Film to Life'

Please Note: We will begin this seminar with a screening of the nine-minute short animated film Memento Mori, wherein a self-serving post-mortem photographer in late-nineteenth century Dublin is confronted by his past. The photographer is voiced by Mark Gatiss.

Wednesday, 23 March at 4.00 pm
Jennifer Mooney (School of English, DCU)
'Feminist Discourse in Irish Literature: Gender and Power in Louise O'Neill's Young Adult Fiction'