

Ollscoil Chathair
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City University

DCU SA PHOBAIL
DCU IN THE COMMUNITY

Psychology

QQI Level 5 award

This course is for those interested in the study of human behavior and human mind. It is designed to provide learners with an introductory understanding of psychology as a field of study.

The course will have a strong focus on connecting the theory of psychology to practice, such as therapies and interventions linked with the major psychological perspectives.

Comhairle Cathrach
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City Council

Start: 9th October 2019

Duration: 11 weeks, Fridays, 10.00am - 1.00pm

Venue: DCU in the Community, Shangan Road, Ballymun and online

Course Fee: €60 (€40 for medical card holders)
The fee includes certification and all course materials

Enrolments: Application form and short interview

Topics include:

- Introduction to psychology as a discipline
- Main psychological perspectives
- Personality: features and personality assessments
- Social psychology: characteristics, conformity, group behaviours
- Abnormal psychology: classifications and diagnoses
- Therapies and interventions
- Ethics in the study of psychology
- Research skills
- DCU guest speaker talks

The course will be delivered through blended learning approach with 6 classroom-based and 5 online sessions. Access to a laptop/tablet and wifi is required. DCU in the Community have a limited number of laptops that are available to registered students on a loan basis for the duration of the course.

For further information and application forms, please contact:

Joanna Ozarowska, DCU in the Community

T 01 700 8800

E joanne.ozarowska@dcu.ie

Lynda Ward, Sillogue Neighbourhood Centre

T 01 563 5253

E lynda@cafta.ie

