

Applications are invited from suitably qualified candidates for the following position:

Project Coordinator (Grade IV)
The Brexit Institute, Law Research Centre
12-Month Fixed Term Contract

Dublin City University

Dublin City University www.DCU.ie is a young, ambitious and vibrant University, with a mission 'to transform lives and societies through education, research, innovation and engagement'. Known as Ireland's 'University of Enterprise and Transformation', it is committed to the development of talent, and the discovery and translation of knowledge that advances society and the economy. DCU is the Sunday Times Irish University of the Year 2021.

The University is based on three academic campuses in the Glasnevin-Drumcondra region of north Dublin. It currently has more than 18,000 students enrolled across five faculties – Science and Health, DCU Business School, Computing and Engineering, Humanities and Social Sciences and DCU Institute of Education. DCU is committed to excellence across all its activities. This is demonstrated by its world-class research initiatives, its cutting-edge approach to teaching and learning, its focus on creating a transformative student experience, and its positive social and economic impact. This exceptional commitment on the part of its staff and students has led to DCU's ranking among the top 2% of universities globally. It also consistently features in the world's Top 100 Young Universities (currently in QS Top 70 Under 50, Times Higher Top 150 Under 100).

DCU is placed 84th in the world, in the Times Higher Education University Impact Rankings – measuring higher education institutions' contributions towards the UN Sustainable Development Goals. Over the past decade, DCU has also been the leading Irish university in the area of technology transfer, as reflected by licensing of intellectual property.

The Brexit Institute

The Brexit Institute is a research and policy centre established in DCU in 2017. The Institute (<http://dcubrexitinstitute.eu>) is Europe's first and Ireland's only centre created to focus on Brexit—the United Kingdom withdrawal from the European Union—and is designed to operate as a hub and magnet to explore the implications that Brexit produces on law, politics, business and society at large. The Institute is led by Federico Fabbrini (Professor of European Law), has a full time, international team of researchers, visiting fellows and interns, and connects broadly staff from across DCU Schools and Faculties working on Brexit-related issues. The Institute regularly organises high-level events, including workshops, training seminars, conferences and briefings; it engages with government, civil society and business, from which it funds itself; and it produces research and policy on a topic of great societal relevance. In summer 2019, the Brexit Institute was awarded funding by the EU Erasmus+ program for a Jean Monnet Network project entitled BRIDGE (Brexit Research an Interchange into Differentiated Governance in Europe: <https://bridgenetwork.eu>). Moreover, the Brexit Institute runs several other projects, funded among others by the Irish Department of Foreign Affairs.
