

MA in Ethics

Enduring Questions.
Global Issues. Big Ideas.

Since 2010, DCU's renowned MA in Ethics programme has attracted people from various graduate and occupational backgrounds including education, journalism, social work, business, the charity sector, healthcare and law.

While pursuing your MA in Ethics at DCU, you will confront and evaluate a range of important contemporary ethical challenges in society.

The modules focus on both general and applied ethics:

- Introduction to Ethics
- Readings in Ethics
- Human Rights & Social Justice
- Business Ethics or Contemporary Topics in Ethics
- Global Bioethics
- Comparative Religious Ethics

No philosophy or ethics background is required to apply for this course.
