

Ollscoil Chathair
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City University

CHILDREN'S LIVES AND LEARNING Public Sessions

DCU Institute of Education and DCU in the Community

These public sessions are open to parents, early childhood practitioners, teachers, youth and community workers, special needs assistants, and any members of the public with an interest in the complex world of children and childhood.

Participants are welcome to register for one or more sessions, and we especially welcome those who wish to attend all four lectures.

Children and Bullying

7th November, 2018

7.30pm - 9pm

Helena Murphy, Doctoral Researcher,
National Anti-Bullying Research and Resource Centre DCU
St Patrick's Campus, Drumcondra
Block F, Room FG10

Learning and Development in Early Years

14th November, 2018

7.30pm - 9pm

Dr Geraldine French, School of Language, Literacy and
Early Childhood Education, DCU Institute of Education
St Patrick's Campus, Drumcondra
Block F, Room F134

Reading and Literacy

21st November, 2018

7.30pm - 9pm

Dr Eithne Kennedy, School of Language, Literacy and
Early Childhood Education, DCU Institute of Education
St Patrick's Campus, Drumcondra
Block F, Room F134

Children and Technology

5th December, 2018

7.30pm - 9pm

Prof Deirdre Butler, School of STEM Education,
Innovation and Global Studies, DCU Institute of Education
St Patrick's Campus, Drumcondra
Block F, 1st Floor, Lego Innovation Studio

Registration is necessary to ensure a place.

Please contact Joanna Ozarowska, DCU in the Community,
01 700 8851 or joanne.ozarowska@dcu.ie to register.