Terms and Conditions

1. The Claddagh Scholarship Programme for Dublin City University is open to citizens of China only who have applied to and accepted an offer of a place to study on a full time Masters programme at Dublin City University starting in September 2016.
2. Scholarship applicants must have completed a Bachelors degree at a recognised University in China with a minimum average result of 85% or be in their final year of study with an expected final average result of 85%. Successful applicants who are completing their degree in Summer 2016 will be required to submit evidence that they have received an 85% average before a scholarship can be awarded.
3. If a successful applicant does not provide evidence that they have achieved a Bachelors degree result with a minimum 85% average the scholarship offer will be lost and awarded to the next successful applicant.
4. Once notified, successful applicants will have one week to confirm acceptance of the scholarship. Failure to confirm acceptance of the scholarship in the given timeframe will result in the loss of the scholarship. In the event that a scholarship is not accepted in the given timeframe, the scholarship will then be offered to the next successful applicant.
5. A scholarship is awarded on the condition of full registration and enrolment of the recipient on a full time Masters degree at Dublin City University in September 2016.
6. Scholarships cannot be deferred should the student wish to defer their place of study at Dublin City University.
7. Scholarships cannot be awarded in the event that the applicant must undertake a semester or year long foundation programme at Dublin City University.
8. Applications will not be permitted from students already taking a foundation programme at Dublin City University.
9. The scholarship recipients will be expected to act as student ambassadors for Dublin City University. Formal acceptance of a 2016 Claddagh Scholarship will be taken as agreement to participate in video, photo shoots and written profiles and to contribute to marketing material as required during your time of study at Dublin City University.
10. The decision of the selection committee is final and no appeal of decision will be heard.
