

Mail

Unnerving phrases, thieves often use phrases meant to scare you, such as saying your account has been suspended, to trick you into acting without thinking, be aware of such subject lines.

COMPOSE

Your 365 has being suspended - Please Update NOW

Inbox

Bankfolreland@info.ie
to me Unsubscribe

Don't be fooled by the eMail address. Phishing scams can mask and replicate eMail address. This address has a spelling mistake that is not obvious at first glance.

Starred

Important

Sent Mail

Drafts

Circles

[Gmail]Bin

More

Dear Customer

Generic salutations: an eMail from your bank should have use your Forname or Sir name not a generic greeting such as Dear Customer.

My Inbox (1) ~ Your message is available to view on 365 online

Login to 365 online

Hyper Links, be wary of hyperlinks and avoid clicking on them. A single click could infect your computer and possibley other computers on the network.

Please note:

At Bank of Ireland, we would NEVER request personal banking details( e.g. a/c numbers, PIN and/or login details) via eMail.

Thank you,

Improper capitalisation of certain words, spelling and grammer errors are common in phishing scams.

Bank Of Ireland.

We are unable to accept incoming emails to this address.

There is no contact information for you to use if so desired. However, the presence of contact does not guarentee legitimacy