

How to Access eBooks

- DCU Library makes available thousands of eBooks online, which can be accessed anytime, anywhere
- You search for eBooks in exactly the same way you search for printed books, through the library catalogue:

- Click on the title of the eBook to open the full record
- Click on the "Access this title online here" link:

- When opening an eBook, you may be asked for your university username and password
- eBooks can be read online or downloaded for a limited period of time
- You can also print sections from eBooks, but please note that copyright restrictions apply. For more information, contact staff in either library

Take Control of your Library Experience

Your Library Account

- As a DCU registered student you have access to a personal Library Account for keeping track of loans, renewing your books and reserving items for future borrowing
- To log into your account, look for the "My Account" link on the library homepage or on the library catalogue
- Enter your student number and your Library PIN (this is a 4 digit code which can be requested from Library staff)

Finding & Borrowing Books

How to Find Books

Start by searching the online catalogue on the library website or on the dedicated catalogue PCs in both libraries.

Here's what you'll see when you click into a book record:

Cregan Library – One available in Main Collection 823.92/FLA
Barcode	Shelfmark	Loan type	Status
000189164	Main Collection 823.92/FLA	Long Loan 1	Available

Note this number to find item on shelf

Indicates how long a book can be borrowed

Indicates if a book is available or when it is due for return

O'Reilly Library – Earliest copy due back 11th September
Barcode	Shelfmark	Loan type	Status
110001656	Main Collection 823.92/FLA	3 Weeks	Due back 11th September

Remember! Check the Library listing at the top of the item record - this will indicate which campus library you will need to visit to find the item. Ask the Library staff if you need help locating any item.

How to borrow books

- Bring the book to one of the self service machines found in either library
- Press "borrow" and follow the onscreen instructions (tip: if you need help, ask Library staff)
- Always remember to print or email (where available) a receipt to confirm the transaction and to get the due date for return
- For access to titles in the Library Request Collection, please speak to a member of Library staff

Extending Loans & Reserving Books

Extending Loans

- Not finished with a book by its due date? No problem! It's easy to go online and extend your loan
- Simply log in to your library account and enter your student number and library PIN (see reverse for information on your library PIN)
- Click on the "Renew" button beside the books you wish to hold on to
- Please note that short loan books and DVDs cannot be renewed
- Reserved books cannot be renewed

Reserving a book

- Looking for a book that is currently on loan to another borrower? Why not reserve it so that you can be next in line!
- First, find the book on the library catalogue
- Then click on the "Reserve" button (this will only be visible if all main collection copies are out on loan)
- Enter your student number and Library PIN to confirm your request
- When the book is ready for collection we will send an email to your DCU account
- You will have 3 working days to collect it from the Issue Desk (O'Reilly Library) or Reception Desk (Cregan Library)

Remember! It is not possible to reserve books from short loan. Reservations must be collected from the library where it is held.

Fines for Late Returns

Main collection books: 50 cent per day
 Short loan books: 50 cent per hour
 DVDs: €2.00 per day
