3. Progression

3.1 Carrying of modules

Under exceptional circumstances, and subject to the approval of the Progression and Award Board, students may be permitted to progress to the next year of study carrying up to 10 credits.

Should constraints prevent a student's participation in the carried module, the Programme Chair may allocate an alternative module or restrict the student's choice of optional modules.

The student will not be permitted in any circumstances to carry more than 10 credits into the following academic year.

In line with university regulations, a student will not be permitted to register for more than 75 credits in any one academic session / year.

Module(s) that have already been carried forward, cannot be carried forward into a further academic year.

The following modules cannot be carried by students in any circumstances, ED1024

In the event that a student is carrying a module relating specifically to the DC005 pathway (for this academic year it is currently ED1025- Skills for University, SI101- ISL and Teaching of ISL, SI102- Deaf Communities, their histories and cultures) they will get access to supporting materials online and up to four support tutorials, but the module lectures/workshops/seminars will not be repeated.
