

Workshop Title, Date & Venue:

Creating Effective and Fair Rubrics for Marking: A Hands On Workshop

10.30 – 12.00 – 15 February 2013 in DG10 Bea Orpen

Workshop Overview:

Rubrics are criterion-referenced tools that are “used to evaluate student performance against a standard of mastery, not just to compare students” (Meeusen, 2011). This is a hands-on workshop where participants will design and evaluate a rubric for an assessment used in their teaching.

Learning Outcomes:

On completion of this workshop you will be able to:

- Recognise the components, benefits, and cautions of using rubrics
- Design and review a rubric for an assessment

Workshop Participants:

This workshop is suitable for any lecturer who needs to design an effective rubric for an assessment.

Registration & Advance Preparation:

You must register here by February 14: <http://liuworkshop15feb.eventbrite.com/to> participate in this workshop; places are limited and will be allocated on first come first served basis.

Workshop Facilitator:

This workshop will be facilitated by Dr. Eloise Tan, Teaching and Learning Developer, Learning Innovation Unit, Dublin City University
