

Workshop Title, Date & Venue:

Teaching in groups – the do's and don'ts

13:00 – 14:00 April 17th 2013 in DG10 Bea Orpen

Workshop Overview:

This workshop will focus on teaching in groups. This workshop will deal three main areas, forming teams, rule development and conflict management. Creating teams in your classes has several benefits but if not handled correctly can be a nightmare experience for both the staff and students. This session walks you through some practical advice on group teaching.

Learning Outcomes:

On completion of this workshop you will be able to:

- Identify the advantages of group teaching
- Identify the issues staff and students may have with group teaching
- Implement some group teaching element into your classes

Workshop Participants:

This workshop is suitable for any lecturer who is interested in implementing group teaching into their classes.

Registration & Advance Preparation:

You must register here by April 16th: <http://liuworkshopapril17.eventbrite.com> to participate in this workshop; places are limited and will be allocated on first come first served basis.

Workshop Facilitator:

This workshop will be facilitated by Dr Mark Glynn, Head of Learning Innovation Unit, Learning Innovation Unit, Dublin City University