

R-32: Application for Deferral of Academic Year 2018/2019 Instructions for Completion

Section A:

- Forms received after 31st October 2018 are subject to approval and may not be processed. Students deferring after this date will be liable to pay programme fees for both the current year and when re-registering in the new academic year. Clarification of fee liability should be sought from the Finance Office.
- No deferral of Academic Year form will be accepted after commencement of Semester One exams. After this date you must complete the Deferral of Examinations Form, please use form R33.
- Students: Please note if you are in receipt of a grant, the Registry will contact your local authority to advise them that you have deferred your programme for the Academic Year

Notes on Deferrals

- If you wish to defer your return to this University for a full academic year, (i.e. from October to September, resuming study in the following September) please complete this form and have it signed by the Chairperson of your Programme Board.

Use of University Facilities while on Deferral

- You will not have access to your Student Apps page while deferred. Arrangements need to be made directly with the Library (external membership card available), Social Centre and/or Sports Complex staff should you wish to use their facilities while on deferral.
