

School of Nursing & Human Sciences

Teaching & Learning Spring School 2017

Technology: Alienating or Enabling Teaching?

Thursday 26th January

9:00-9:30

Registration (HG17)

9:30 -9:45

Opening address:

Michelle Butler, Dean of the Faculty of Science and Health, DCU.

Session 1:

The Force Awakens (HG17)

Session Chair: Assoc. Anne Matthews,
Head of School of Nursing & Human Sciences, DCU.

9:45-10:30

Anne Spencer & Pamela Hussey

The Force Awakens – technology as a force for change or a pathway to the dark side: Benefits, inhibitors and concerns over the adoption of technology enhanced learning in education.

10:30-10:45

Mark Philbin

Doing Drugs With Students: Promoting class engagement through the use of assessment technologies.

10:45-11:00

Daragh Rodger & Anne Spencer

Community of Practice - Promoting Healthy Ageing.

11:00-11:30

Coffee and Poster viewing

Session 2:

Learning Technology: Teaching online / ePortfolios (HG17)

Session Chair: Rita Glover, School of Nursing & Human Sciences, DCU.

11:30-12:15

Mark Glynn & Clare Gormley

Technology in teaching: making it work for you.

12:15-12:30

Therese Leufer, Joseph Bonham, Patrick Doyle & Lisa Donaldson

Augmenting surgical skills capability for nurses at post-graduate level using technology.

12:30-12:45

Ben McKiernan

Building a learning object for undergraduate nurse education; a student intern's experience.

12:45-13:00

Evelyn Kelleher, Colette Lyng, Adele Keough & Anna Kimmins

Technology Enhanced Practical Assessment – video OCSCE's favoured by students and academics.

13:00-14:00

Lunch and Poster viewing

Session 3: Interactive Workshops: Using “The Force” (HG134 / H135)

- 14:00- 14:45 Lorraine Boran & Patrick Doyle
UNICAM: Using techNology In higher education to Capture, Assess and Monitor group discussion.
- 14:45-15:00 Coffee
- 15:00-15:45 Pamela Hussey, Anne Kirwan & Melissa Corbally
The Clinical Nurse Specialist Group Using Techno-Anthropology to Create New Practices.
- 15:45-16:15 Day 1 Sum up Q&A HG17

Friday 27th January

Session 4: Social Media and e-Professionalism in Third Level Education (HG17)

- Session Chair: Lorraine Boran, School of Nursing & Human Sciences, DCU.
- 09:30-10:15 Claudia Megele
ENABLE: embedding social media in academic curricula as a learning and assessment strategy for developing e-professionalism.
- 10:15-10:45 Peter Buzzi
Exploring Social Media and Dissolving Boundaries: Navigating Personal & Professional Identities and Private & Public Lives.
- 10:45-11:15 Q&A with Claudia Megele and Peter Buzzi
- 11:15 -11.45 Coffee & Posters

Session 5: Game Based Learning & Virtual Reality

- Session Chair: Mr Patrick Doyle, Technical Officer, School of Nursing & Human Sciences, DCU.
- 11:45-12:30 Gearóid Ó Súilleabháin
Well Played: Game-based Learning for Health Education.
- 12:30-13:00 Patrick Boylan
Virtual Reality: Obstacles and Potential.
- 13:00-13:15 Closing Address:
Greg Foley, Assoc Dean of Teaching & Learning Faculty of Science & Health, DCU.

For further information contact:
sharon.farrell@dcu.ie