

Loss, Grief and Bereavement Student Support

This year, the Counselling and Personal Development Service, are inviting students who are effected by loss and grief and are in the process of transition, to a 'Student Forum Group' to brainstorm ways that would best support students individually and collectively with this challenging process.

If you would like to be involved in this process and/or would like to have further information;

and / or

If you are more recently bereaved and would like to avail of individual support ;

please email: barrie.mcentee@dcu.ie , Counsellor with the Counselling and Personal Development Service

This Student Forum Group is part of our Student Empowerment and Life Skills Programme
